Instructions: Tell students to take out a pencil and put it on their desks. Hand out Evaluation 1. Say Look at the pictures. What can you see? Elicit some of the things they can see (don't do all the ones in the test!). At the end, tell students to write their names. Collect the papers from students.

Key: 1b, 2a, 3a, 4c, 5b

Find the test audio on our website www.cambridge.org/elt/kidsboxamericanenglish or read it to the class.

Look at the pictures. Listen and look. There is one example.

Where does Frank live?

FRANK: I really like my new house.

A: Is it in the country?

FRANK: No, it's in the city. It has two floors.

A: Does it have a balcony?

FRANK: No, it doesn't.

Can you see the check mark? Now you listen and check the box.

One. Which one is Jenny's uncle?

JENNY: My Uncle Jack is visiting from Canada. He's really nice.

A: Is he tall like your dad?

JENNY: Yes, and he has dark hair. It's not straight.

A: Does he have a mustache?

JENNY: Yes, and a very funny beard!

Two. Which one is Mark's lunch?

MARK: Let's eat our lunch here on the playground.

A: OK. What do you have to eat today? Look. I have a banana. Do you have one?

MARK: No, I don't like eating fruit. But I have some fruit juice. I like that.

A: I have eggs today. I don't like them.

MARK: Let me look – oh, I have some bread and cheese.

You can have some, if you like.

A: Thanks, Mark.

Three. What do the children want to do?

GIRL A: Let's go to the park.

GIRL B: That's a good idea. I can take my new soccer ball.

GIRL A: We can play soccer tomorrow at school. Let's read our new books.

GIRL B: That's boring. I want to play a game. I have a new game. Look.

GIRL A: Oh, that looks fun. Let's do that.

Four. Which is Mr. Green's apartment?

A: Hello, Mr. Green. Do you like your new apartment?

MR. GREEN: Yes, it's very nice. I have a balcony for my flowers.

A: Is that your apartment building? The tall one?

MR. GREEN: Yes. I'm at the top. Look – you can see my apartment.

A: Six floors. That's a lot of stairs. Is there an elevator?

MR. GREEN: Yes!

Five. Which cat is Paddy?

LOCK: Look, that's Paddy, the cat we're looking for.

KEY: No problem. We'll find him.

LOCK: Give me a pencil and paper. He has long white fur ...

KEY: No, it's black and it's not long – it's short.

LOCK: That fur's long. Look. You can see.

KEY: OK. You're right. But he's not all black. Look at his tail. It's white!

LOCK: Humph!

Now listen again.

This is the end of the test.

Evaluation 2

Instructions: Tell students to take out their pencils and put them on their desks. Hand out Evaluation 2. Say Look at the pictures. What can you see? Elicit that it's a girl's daily routine. Tell them her name is Paula. Focus students on Step 1. Give them time to look through the story and think about the words/actions. Focus them on Step 2. They fill in the clocks. Students individually choose which times to write.

Put students into groups of four. Focus on one group at a time. Tell the other groups to put their papers away and give them another task to do, e.g., from Primary Vocabulary Box.

The students in a group take turns telling the story to the other students in their group. You are not listening for particular language: the aim here is that they can communicate their story to the others. Take about 4 minutes with each group. Listen to each student and decide as you are listening how many stars you will award them.

Collect the papers from students. Make sure they have written their names.

Feedback. There are six stars at the end of the page. Color each one according to how well the student completed the task. Draw a smiley face in the circle to the right. Congratulate students when you hand back their work. Don't grade the evaluation and don't rank students in order.

Evaluation 3

Instructions: Hand out Evaluation 3. Explain how it works before students start. Say Look at the pictures. Look at the sentences. Then write the correct words. Look at the example. Students work individually. Give students about five minutes to complete the evaluation. Collect the papers from students. Make sure they have written their names.

Feedback. There are six stars on the right of the page. Color each one according to how well the student completed the task, one star for each correct answer. Draw a smiley face in the circle at the bottom. Congratulate students when you hand back their work. Don't grade the evaluation and don't rank students in order.

Key: 1 a lake, 2 a root, 3 a picnic, 4 a hospital, 5 the country, 6 medicine
