Warmer

- Review known wild animals by giving clues, e.g., I'm thinking about an animal. It's a bird. It's black and white. It can swim, but it can't fly (penguin). As students guess the animals, write them on the board around a mind map. Include crocodile and giraffe. Write Wild animals in the center. Introduce huge. Say huge is very, very big, and write it on the board. Ask: Fish or whale, which is huge? Elicit further examples of things that are huge from the students (the ocean, a huge country like China or Russia, a building, the sun, a forest, etc.).

Presentation

- Teach/ elicit the new animals using the flashcards. Elicit what students know about each one (e.g., colors, where they live, what they eat). Add them to the mind map.

SB64. ACTIVITY 1. Look, think, and answer.

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 64. Check comprehension of the unit title (especially world). Focus students on the picture. Elicit what animals they can see.
- Ask a student to read the activity instructions aloud and others to take turns reading the four questions. Students compare their answers/predictions in pairs, looking for clues in the picture.

SB64. ACTIVITY 2. Listen and check.

- Play the CD. Students listen and check. Play the CD again.
- Check with the class. Set more listening questions, e.g., Which animals live in the ocean? Which animal sleeps a lot? Play the CD again. Students listen for the answers. They check in pairs. Check general understanding, e.g., What do bears eat? Check understanding of quick and insect.

Ask a student to read number 1 aloud. Elicit what's wrong with the description and elicit a correct version from around the class. Students work in pairs. They read the definitions, identify the problems, and correct them. They write a first draft in their notebooks. Check with the class by eliciting correct versions from different students. They write their correct versions in their Workbooks.

WB65. ACTIVITY 4. Write about your favorite wild animal.

- Focus students on Activity 4 and on the instruction. Ask around the class What's your favorite wild animal? Where does it live? What does it look like? What can it do? Students create a mind map in their notebooks for their wild animal, showing what they're going to write about. They show their partner. Students write their drafts in their notebooks. Remind them to use the texts in the Workbook and Student's Book to help them. Monitor and guide. When you have checked students' work, they write it in their Workbook.

Extra activities: see page T107 (if time)

Ending the lesson

- Elicit which animals students wrote about in Workbook page 65 Activity 4. Write the animals on the board. Find out how many students wrote about each one with a "hands up." Write the totals on the board, draw a simple bar chart, and announce the class's favorite wild animal.

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will be able to compare animals using comparative adjectives.

Warmer

- Elicit known adjectives using mime and pictures. Write the adjectives on the board. Elicit good, bad, quick, big, long, small, short, dirty, strong, nice, hungry, clean, weak, fat, easy, thin, quiet, hot. Ask students to make pairs from some of the adjectives, e.g., strong-weak.

Presentation

- Use classroom objects to introduce the notion of comparison. Take two fairly short pencils (one shorter than the other). Hold up the longer one and say This pencil's short. Hold up the other one and say This pencil's short, too. Hold them both up and say This pencil's shorter than that pencil. Repeat with other objects and adjectives, e.g., book/thin, bag/clean, hair/long, exercise/easy. Students repeat the comparative sentences after you. Listen for correct pronunciation of than – the weak form /ðən/.

SB66. ACTIVITY 7. Look, think, and answer.

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 66. Focus them on the picture. Ask a student to read the activity instructions aloud and others to take turns reading the four questions. Students compare their answers/predictions in pairs, looking for clues in the picture.

SB66. ACTIVITY 8. Listen and check.

- Play the CD. Students listen for the answers. They check in pairs. Play the CD again if necessary. Check with the class. Set other listening questions, e.g., write the following on the board:
The Internet is _____ using a book.
Elephants are _____ other land animals.
Bats are _____ elephants.
- Students listen for the missing words. They check in pairs. Check with the class (quicker than, bigger than, smaller than). Check understanding of the text by asking questions about the other animals.

CD 3, 05

ROBERT: We have homework on animals today.

SCOTT: Let's use the Internet. It's quicker than using a book.

ROBERT: Cool. Look at this elephant. It's bigger than all the other land animals in the world.

SALLY: Should we look at another animal? Look at this.

ROBERT: A bat.

SALLY: It's much smaller than the elephant. It says that some bats are only four centimeters long.

ROBERT: The elephant is stronger – it says it can carry trees!

SCOTT: And the elephant is much dirtier than the bat. Elephants like swimming in dirty rivers and lakes when it's hot. Just like Dotty!

SB66. ACTIVITY 9. What do you think? Read and say "yes" or "no."

- Focus students on Activity 9 and on the activity instructions. Do the first one as an example. Students whisper yes or no to their partner. Check with the class. If possible, elicit a correction each time.

Key: 1 yes, 2 no, 3 no, 4 (no fixed answer), 5 yes, 6 no

Practice

- Focus students on the Look box. Explain that these are called comparatives if you wish. Elicit what students notice about the spellings of the different words. Write them on the board to help. Make four columns. Write clean at the top of one, big at the top of the next, dirty at the top of the next and good/bad at the top of the next. Elicit the comparatives for each word and write them in the appropriate column, e.g., cleaner. Focus students on the different spellings of the comparatives and elicit the spelling rules for the three examples: clean/cleaner, big/bigger, dirty/dirtier. Remind students that good and bad are irregular.

WB66. ACTIVITY 5. Read and circle.

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 66. Read the activity instructions and point out the example answer. Tell students to use a pencil. They work individually to circle the words and then check their answers in pairs. Check with the class.

SB67. ACTIVITY 10. Listen and complete. Sing the song.

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 67. Focus students on Activity 10 and elicit what they can see in the pictures around the text, e.g., a lion, a snake. Read the first part of the activity instructions and make sure students know what to do. They try to guess which words go in the blanks in pairs. They write the words in pencil.
- Elicit ideas. Then play the CD for students to listen and check their answers. Check with the class.
- Play the CD again, line by line and then verse by verse, for students to repeat. Continue until students are confident with the song.

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 67. Focus them on the lists and on the first part of the activity instructions. Check they understand what to do. In pairs, students match the simple and comparative adjectives. Pairs check with pairs. Check with the class using a chant, e.g., strong-stronger, hungry-hungrier.
- Focus students on the second half of the activity instructions and on the chart, and remind them of the Student's Book activity and the Look box. Students work in pairs and write the adjectives in the correct columns. Check with the class, confirming the spelling rules for each of the first three columns.

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 69. Erase the board. Direct students to the activity instructions and check understanding. They do the same as for the Do you remember? activity in previous units. They study the words on the right in silence, using the pictures to help. They fold the page down the middle so that they can see the pictures and the blanks for the words. Without looking, they write the words in pencil, using the pictures to help. They check in pairs, asking, e.g., How do you spell "kangaroo"? They don't look at the words on the right. When students have finished, they can either correct their own work or swap books with their friend and check their partner's.

WB69. CAN DO.

- Focus students on the Can do section of the page. Say Let's read the sentences together. Read the first sentence. Elicit what this means, with examples, and elicit/remind students of the activities they did in this unit when they talked about wild animals. Review what the three faces mean (not very well / OK / very well). Remind students they circle the one they think is true for them.
- Repeat for the second sentence, eliciting/reminding students of the work they did about animals and their habitats and habits. Students circle a face. Repeat for the third sentence, checking the meaning of compare and eliciting some examples. Students circle a face.
- Say Now show and tell your friends. Students work in groups of three and take turns showing / talking about their work.

Read the activity instructions. Play number 1 on the CD. Check students know what to do (they write the names of two animals for each pair of labels, pointing to the habitat). Give students time to look at the picture carefully again. Tell them not to worry about new language but to listen for the key words (habitats and animals). Play the CD. Students listen and write in pencil. They check in pairs. Play the CD again. Check with the class, asking, e.g., Which animals live in the jungle?

OK. ... Ooh, look at those bats, Vicky.
Ooh!
Sshhh! Be quiet! They're sleeping.

Extra activities: see page T108 (if time)

Optional activity

- Unit 7 Topic worksheet from Teacher's Resource Book 3 (pages 57 and 63).

Ending the lesson

- Review and discuss with students what they learned about in today's lesson.

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have talked more about animal habitats and completed a project.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Key language: ring-tailed lemur

Additional language: I think ...

Review: animal habitats, food, wild animals, questions, cave, jungle, crocodile, frog, tail, world

● MATERIALS REQUIRED

Warmer: Four large pieces of paper/cardboard, each with one of the following words: cave, jungle, ocean, rock

Project: A piece of paper for each student, colored pencils, reference materials, relevant internet sites

Extra activity 2: Word train materials from previous units, a piece of paper for the “wagon” for the words for this lesson

Warmer

- Display the large pieces of paper with habitat words on four different walls in the classroom. Say an animal from Workbook page 70, Activity 2 (e.g., Bat). Students point/go to the correct habitat word (e.g., Cave). Repeat for snake, shark, monkey, lizard, parrot, bear, and dolphin.

SB71. ACTIVITY 3. Look at the animals. What do you think? Ask and answer.

- Tell students to open their Student’s Book to page 71. Focus on the photographs and elicit frog and crocodile. Review tomato. Teach ring-tailed lemur and check comprehension of tail. Read the activity instructions and go through the questions with the class. Do the first one as an example. Remind students to use I think ... when they give their ideas, but do not confirm the answer. Students work in pairs. They read the questions and try to guess the answers. Discuss each question briefly with the class without giving away the answers. Encourage students to talk about the reasons for their guesses.

SB71. ACTIVITY 4. Listen and check.

- Tell students the answers are on the CD. Play the CD. Students correct their answers. Play the CD once or twice more so students have the opportunity to find the answers. Check with the class. Ask students which answer surprised them the most.

Key: 1 The Nile crocodile. 2 The tomato frog. 3 The ring-tailed lemur. 4 It helps them hide. 5 To help them climb trees and move in the forest. 6 Because other animals don’t like eating red animals.

CD 3, 11

Tomato frogs are bright red. They are red because other animals don’t like eating animals of this color. These frogs live in trees in the jungle and eat small animals.

Ring-tailed lemurs live in mountains and forests. Their long tails help them climb trees and move in the forest. They need to climb trees because they eat fruit and leaves.

Nile crocodiles live in a lot of countries in Africa. Sometimes they live in caves. They are brown, the same color as the ground and the dirty water. Their color helps them hide and catch other animals and fish to eat.

SB71. PROJECT. Make an animal information page.

- Write the following prompts on the board: What is the animal called? What is it like? Where does it live? What does it eat? Provide students with appropriate reference materials. Students write a draft of their text in their notebooks first. When you have checked their work, they write it on their information page.

WB71. ACTIVITY 3. MOVERS Listening, Part 2.

Listen and write. There is one example. M toward

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 71. Play the CD. Students write one or two words for each answer.

Key: 1 15, 2 Sea animals, 3 Sharks, 4 Fish, dolphins, 5 Sea World

CD 3, 12

Listen and look. There is one example. Hello, Charlie. What are you doing?

I’m doing a project for school.

A project? When should you show it?

On Wednesday.

Wednesday? You have a lot of time, then. You have five days!

Yes, but I want to do it now.

Can you see the answer? Now you listen and write.

1. What’s the project on?

It’s on animals. I can choose from fifteen different animals. Fifteen or fifty?

Fifteen.

That’s a lot!

Yes, but I can choose. I don’t need to write about all of them, and I’m enjoying it because I love animals.

2. Which kind of animal are you writing about?

I’m choosing sea animals.

Excuse me? Which kind?

Sea animals. I’m writing about three different ones.

3. Which ones are you writing about?

I’m writing about whales, sharks, and dolphins.

Which of the three kinds is your favorite?

Hmm ... Sharks are uglier than dolphins and whales, but I like them better than the others. Sharks are my favorite.

4. What do sharks like eating, Charlie?

There are different kinds of sharks, but my favorite, the great white shark, eats fish and sometimes dolphins.

Dolphins! And are great white sharks white?

Of course they are!

5. What’s your project called? Does it have a name?

Well, no. It’s difficult to choose a name.

Do you like the name “Water Animals”?

It’s OK, but I like “Sea World” better!

There you are! “Sea World.” That’s a good name!

Yes, it is. / How do you spell “world” / W-O-R-L-D.
