

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have listened to a story and talked about giving and sharing.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Key language: trash can, give, share, small for (someone)

Additional language: box, of course, That's a great idea, throw, break

Review: clothes, prepositions, need, new, old, small, beautiful, hospital, children, cousin, clean

● MATERIALS REQUIRED

Warmer: Some old books or toys in a cardboard box

Extra activity 2: Two pieces of paper for each student, two pictures (by you) of the same toy on separate pieces of paper

Warmer

- Show the class the old books/toys you have brought. Say Look. These are my (books). Are they new or old? Students respond Old. Say I don't need them. What do I do with them? Teach trash can.

SB82. ACTIVITY 1. Look and think. Say "yes" or "no."

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 82 and to look at the picture. Elicit what they can see (books, toys, children, mom, jacket, etc.). Teach/review box. Students work in pairs to talk about the sentences. Do not confirm answers.

SB82. ACTIVITY 2. Listen and check.

- Play the CD. Students listen and check their answers to Activity 1. Ask, e.g., Does Daisy play with the toys? Who likes the jacket? Does Daisy want the jacket? Talk briefly in L1 about giving and sharing. Remind students that Values lessons are about doing the right thing. Ask students what they do with their old toys, books, and clothes.

Key: 1 No, 2 No, 3 Yes, 4 Yes

CD 3, 27

MOM: Hello, Jane. Come in.

JANE: Hello, Mrs. Peters. Hi, Daisy.

DAISY: Hi, Jane.

JANE: What are you doing, Daisy?

DAISY: I'm putting my old books and toys into boxes.

JANE: Why?

DAISY: Because I don't need them. I don't play with these dolls or toys now. I'm putting them in the boxes to take to the hospital.

JANE: The hospital?

DAISY: Yes, they're for the children in the hospital. The hospital needs books and toys.

JANE: That's a good idea. I give my old books to my school, but now I can give my toys to the children in the hospital, too. Ooh! I like that jacket on the door. It's beautiful.

DAISY: Yes, it is. It's one of my favorites, but it's too small for me now. Do you want it?

JANE: Oh, yes, please. But you need to ask your mom.

DAISY: Mom, can I give that jacket to Jane, please? It's very small for me now.

MOM: Yes, of course. That's a great idea.

JANE: Oh, thank you.

SB82. ACTIVITY 3. Read and correct.

- Students work in pairs. They read the sentences, discuss them, and write a correct version in their notebooks. Demonstrate by writing the first sentence on the board. Elicit the correct sentence and underline the words students need to change (under the bed). Write the corrected sentence on the board (Daisy's putting books and toys in boxes.). Monitor and help pairs as necessary.

Key: 1 Daisy's putting books and toys in boxes. 2 The books and toys are for the children in the hospital. 3 The hospital needs books and toys. 4 Jane gives her old books to her school.

5 The jacket is too small for Daisy. 6 Daisy wants to give her jacket to Jane.

WB82. ACTIVITY 1. Listen and number.

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 82. Focus on Activity 1. Ask what they can see in the pictures. Elicit toys, books, jeans, bike, kites, etc. Play number 1 on the CD and point to the example answer. Play the rest of the CD. Students write numbers in pencil. They compare answers in pairs. Play the CD again. Check with the class.

Key: b 6, c 4, d 3, e 2, f 5

CD 3, 28

1. Dad, can we take my old toys to the children in the hospital, please?
Of course, Bill. That's a great idea.
2. Mom, is it OK to take my old books to school for other children to read?
Yes, that's a good idea, Ann.
3. Your bike is very small for you, Kim. Can we give it to your cousin Julia?
Oh, yes! Can we take it today? I can teach her to ride it.
4. I love your jeans, Jim.
So do I, but they're very small for me now. My mom says I can give them to you.
Yes, please.
5. Let's play with our kites.
But I don't have one.
Don't worry, I have two. You can fly one of mine.
6. Oh, this game's finished.
Oh, I don't have that one.
Here, you can play with it.
Thanks! Here, you can play with mine!

WB82. ACTIVITY 2. Read and choose.

- Focus students on Activity 2. They need to choose just one answer to each question. Go through the questions with the class, explaining new vocabulary (e.g., break). Students choose their answer individually by circling a, b, or c.

Key: 1 c, 2 a, 3 a, 4 c

Extra activities: see page T109 (if time)

Ending the lesson

- Write the following responses on the board: Yes, but they're small for me. / Yes, that's a great idea. / Yes, please. / You can play with mine. Say Can I give my toys to the hospital, Mom? and elicit the correct response from the ones on the board (Yes, that's a great idea). Repeat the question. The class replies in chorus with the correct response.

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have talked about respecting their environment and completed rules for behavior in public.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Can I put my feet on the desk?* Elicit No. / You can't. / Don't put your feet on the desk. Throw some trash on the classroom floor. Ask the class What about this? Can I throw trash in the classroom? Elicit No. / You can't. / must not throw trash. Say Different places have different rules. Tell students in L1 that in this lesson they are going to talk about how to behave in different places.

SB83. ACTIVITY 1. Look and think. Say "yes" or "no."

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 83. Focus on the lesson title and review the meaning of Values and Love your city. Direct students to the four pictures. Elicit what they can see (e.g., street, park, trash, wall, paint, train, soccer ball). Read the activity instructions aloud and choose students to read the sentences aloud. Check comprehension. Elicit the answer for sentence 1 from the class (no). Students work in pairs to talk about the rest of the sentences. Monitor and encourage them to speak in English, but do not confirm answers.

SB83. ACTIVITY 2. Listen and check.

- Tell students to listen carefully. Play the CD. Students listen and check their answers to Activity 1. Check with the class. Play the CD again and check comprehension. Ask, e.g., Where must you put trash? Is the wall beautiful in picture 2? What must the boy do in picture 3? Where can the girl play soccer? Talk briefly in L1 about respecting your city and taking care of public property. Ask students if there are problems with graffiti and litter in their city/hometown.

Key: 1 No, 2 No, 3 No, 4 No

CD 3, 29

1.

FRED: That chocolate was good, but I'm still hungry!

JILL: Fred! You must not throw your trash on the ground!

FRED: Where can I put it?

JILL: Look, there's a trash can behind you.

FRED: Oh, yes. Thanks, Jill!

2.

BOY: What are you doing?

GIRL: I'm writing my name on the wall.

BOY: But it's not your wall. That's not smart. Now it's ugly, and someone must clean it.

GIRL: Oh, yes, you're right. It's not nice.

BOY: Let's ask my dad to help us clean it.

3.

BOY: Peter, put your feet down. Other people need to sit there, and now it's dirty.

PETER: Oh, I'm sorry. What can I do?

BOY: You can clean it.

PETER: That's a good idea.

4.

BOY: Hey, don't play soccer there. You're breaking the flowers.

GIRL: Oh, sorry. Where can we play?

BOY: You can play over there. There aren't any flowers.

GIRL: Great, thanks very much.

SB83. ACTIVITY 3. Read and match.

- Focus students on Activity 3. Read the activity instructions and point out the example. Students work in pairs to match the rest of the sentence halves. Check with the class.

Key: 2 c, 3 e, 4 a, 5 f, 6 d

WB83. ACTIVITY 1. Read and choose.

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 83. Focus on the picture in Activity 1. Ask What's the girl doing? Review break. Elicit suggestions for what the boy is saying.
- Students work in pairs to complete the activity. They circle the correct word in pencil. Do not confirm answers.

WB83. ACTIVITY 2. Listen and check.

- Play the CD for students to check their answers.

Key: playground, children, soccer, flowers, play soccer.

CD 3, 30

CHARLIE: Hey! You're breaking that tree, Mary, and I love trees!

MARY: Yes, so do I. Sorry. You're right.

CHARLIE: Let's play soccer over there in the playground.

MARY: No, we can't. Those toys are for small children.

CHARLIE: Oh, yes. Do you want to play soccer?

MARY: Yes, but we can't play next to the flowers. Let's go there.

CHARLIE: Yes, that's a great place to play soccer.

WB83. ACTIVITY 3. Put the words in order.

- Students work in pairs to reorder the sentences. Check with the class.

Key: 1 It isn't OK to write on the desks at school. 2 On the bus, put your feet on the floor. 3 Don't break the trees and flowers in the park. 4 You must not throw your trash on the ground.

Extra activities: see page T109 (if time)

Ending the lesson

- Mime one of the inappropriate behaviors from the lesson (e.g., throwing trash on the ground). Students tell you You must not throw trash on the ground! / Don't throw trash on the ground. / Put your trash in the trash can. Repeat with different types of behavior (e.g., putting your feet on the desk, writing on the wall, playing soccer in the classroom, writing on the desk).

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have listened to examples of fair play and talked about rules for playing fairly.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Key language: fair play, team, player, alright, Excellent/Nice/ Great game, Good job!

Additional language: yellow card, follow the rules, Should I get the teacher? It's OK

Warmer

- Play the video clip of sports people shaking hands. Elicit who students think the winner(s) is/are. Elicit what the losing player(s) is/are saying (see if students can remember Good job!). Write Fair play on the board and elicit a translation.

SB84. ACTIVITY 1. Look and think. Say "yes" or "no."

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 84. Elicit the names of the sports (baseball, soccer, field hockey, basketball). Use picture 1 to teach team and player.
- Students discuss answers in pairs. Do not confirm answers.

SB84. ACTIVITY 2. Listen and check.

- Play the CD. Students listen and check.

Key: 1 Yes, 2 No (When you play sports, you need to know the rules), 3 Yes, 4 No (It isn't OK to be angry when we don't win).

CD 3, 31

1.

TEACHER: OK, Jack. You're on Fred's team.

JACK: I don't like baseball. I'm not very good at it.

FRED: That's OK, Jack. We can help you.

TEACHER: And remember you don't need to win, just enjoy playing!

2.

TEACHER: Paul! You must not touch the ball with your hands.

PAUL: You're right. I'm sorry.

TEACHER: That's alright, but you must follow the rules of the game.

3.

JIM: Ow! My leg.

SALLY: Are you OK, Jim?

JIM: No, my leg hurts.

SALLY: Can I help you? Should I get the teacher?

JIM: Yes, please. Thanks, Sally.

4.

TEACHER: Excellent game, children. Lucy's team wins 82–78.

VICKY: Nice game, Lucy. Good job!

LUCY: Thanks, Vicky. Your team's very good, too!

VICKY: It was a great game.

SB84. ACTIVITY 3. Read and correct.

- Students work in pairs to read and discuss.

SB85. ACTIVITY 2. Listen and check.

- Tell students to listen carefully. Play the CD. Students listen and check their answers to Activity 1. Check with the class. Play the CD again and check comprehension. Ask, e.g., Is it good to use the car all the time? Why does the girl turn off the water? Does the woman want bags in picture 3? Why not? What is the boy doing in picture 4? Why? Talk briefly in L1 about making small changes to daily habits to help our world. Ask students if they do any of the things in the pictures or if they help in different ways.

Key: 1 Yes, 2 Yes, 3 No, 4 No

CD 3, 33

1.

DAD: John, should I drive you to school this morning?

JOHN: Thanks, Dad, but Mom and I want to walk to school. It's better to walk than to drive.

DAD: Yes, you're right. It's not good to use the car all the time. Today I can go to work on the bus, too.

2.

BOY: Sue! You must turn off the water when you brush your teeth.

SUE: You're right. We must not use a lot of water. I forgot.

BOY: That's OK.

3.

WOMAN: Would you like a bag?

MOM: No, thank you. We have two bags. My daughter always brings them from home. Good job, Mary!

MARY: Thanks, Mom.

4.

TOM: Come on, Jack. Let's go!

JACK: Wait a minute, Tom. We need to turn off the computer first.

TOM: No, that's alright. We can turn it off later.

JACK: No. Let's turn it off now. When we aren't using computers and lights, we need to turn them off. They use a lot of electricity.

SB85. ACTIVITY 3. Read and match.

- Focus students on Activity 3. Read the activity instructions and point out the example. Check comprehension of lights (number 5). Students work in pairs to match the rest of the sentence halves. Check with the class.
