

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have reviewed language from Units 1 and 2 and played a game.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Key language: vocabulary and language from Units 1 and 2

Additional language: procedural language: It's my/your/his/her turn. Pass the die, please. I'm/You're/He's/She's (yellow). I've/You've/He's/She's finished/won. That's wrong/right. If it's right, roll again. If it's wrong, stop. Wanted!

Review: character names, present progressive, have, play the game

● MATERIALS REQUIRED

A die and four different colored game pieces for each group of four students

Warmer: Eight to ten pictures of people cut from magazines. The pictures should feature young and old people, beards, curly hair, fair hair, straight hair, long/short hair, mustaches, different colored eyes (if visible), glasses. Prepare a short description of the person in each picture.

Warmer

- Stick the pictures cut from magazines on the board. Write a letter (a, b, c, d, etc.) under each one. Read aloud your descriptions one by one. Read each one twice. They shouldn't be in the same order as the pictures. Students listen and write the letter corresponding to the picture in their notebooks. They check in pairs. Check with the class.

SB26. ACTIVITY 1. Play the game.

- Students open their Student's Book to page 26. Elicit what they can see (a game). Say Yes, you're going to play a game. Quickly review the home/house vocabulary. Say, e.g., Can you find a laptop? Point to it. Do the same for balcony, country, basement, stairs, elevator, etc.
- Demonstrate the game using four students, before handing out the die and game pieces to the rest of the class. Students take turns rolling the die and moving. When they land on a picture, they spell the word. If it's correct, they roll again. If not, they stop. If they land on an elevator, they go up; if stairs, they go down. Students say the numbers aloud as they move (for practice).
- Direct students to the instructions on the Student's Book page. Make groups of four. Students clear their desks and place one book in the center. Hand out a die and four different colored game pieces to each group. Students roll the die to see who starts (the one with the highest number). Play moves up the board. The first student in each group to finish is the winner.
- If time, students can play the game again.

WB26. ACTIVITY 1. Listen and write the numbers.

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 26. Direct students to the activity instructions and check understanding. Students write the number as a numeral on the badges. Remind them to use a pencil. Play the CD. Students listen and write. They check in pairs. Play the CD again. Check with the class.

Key: 2: 43, 3: 42, 4: 70, 5: 37, 6: 50

CD 1, 34

1.

SUZY: How old are you, Grandma?

GRANDMA: I'm 68.

2.

ALEX: How old's your dad, Scott?

SCOTT: He's 43.

3.

EVA: How old's your mother, Sally?

SALLY: Mom's 42.

4.

SUZY AND SALLY: Happy birthday, Grandpa. You're 70 today.

5.

AUNT MAY: I'm 37.

6.

SCOTT: Uncle Fred, are you 50 or 60?

UNCLE FRED: I'm 50, Scott.

AB26. ACTIVITY 2. Read and find.

- Focus students on Activity 2. Direct students to the instruction and check understanding. Students work individually. They read silently to find the correct picture. They check in pairs. Check with the class by eliciting the answer and then asking students around the class to read aloud the sentences to check.

Key: 8.

Extra activity: see page T102 (if time)

Ending the lesson

- On the board, draw a house with ten stair steps going down into a swamp. Draw a big crocodile in the swamp. Draw a stick figure at the top of the stairs. Write a word from Units 1 or 2 as dashes, one for each letter in the word. Students take turns guessing a letter. Write correct letters in the word, and write incorrect letters on the right of the board. For each incorrect guess, move the stick figure one step down. Continue until students guess or the figure is eaten. Erase the board and repeat with a different word.

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have reviewed language from Units 1 and 2 and talked about pictures.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Key language: vocabulary and language from Units 1 and 2, armchair

Additional language: This picture is different

Review: descriptions, food, clothes, toys, family, present progressive

● MATERIALS REQUIRED

The completed crossword puzzle for Workbook Activity 4 copied on a large piece of paper

Optional: Kid's Box AE Interactive DVD 3: Sally's room Quiz 1, Kid's Box AE Workbook 3 Language Portfolio page 91

Warmer

- Describe someone in the class without giving their name, referring to hair, eyes, clothes, e.g., This student has short dark hair. This student ... The class guesses who it is. Repeat.

SB27. ACTIVITY 2. Look, read, and write.

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 27. Elicit what they can see (people in a house doing different things). Elicit some of the things they are doing.

Key: 1 couch, 2 lamp, 3 (The family is/They are) in the hallway / living room., 4 (He's reading) a comic book., 5 and 6 e.g., The woman is cleaning the window. The boy's sitting on the floor.

SB27. ACTIVITY 3. Look at the pictures. Say which is different.

- Focus students on Activity 3 and on the first row of pictures. Elicit what each one is and which one is different (go through the example answer, but accept other options, as long as students can explain them – there may be more than one possible answer).
- Direct students to the activity instructions to remind them this is a speaking activity. In pairs, they look at the rows of pictures and decide which ones are different. Check with the class and discuss.

Key: 2 b, 3 d, 4 a

SB27. Quiz!

- Say Now let's read and remember. Explain/ elicit the meaning of quiz. Focus students on the questions. Students look back through Units 1 and 2 and find the answers to the questions. They discuss them in groups of four. Check with the class.
- Students write two more questions of their own to help them remember the language and/or vocabulary from the units. They write the questions in their notebooks. Students close their Student's Books. Volunteers ask the class one of their review questions.

Key: 1 Her name's Aunt May. 2 She loves painting. 3 It's white. 4 You can find a basement under a house. 5 Her new address is 14 Park Road. 6 It's straight.

WB27. ACTIVITY 3. Circle the one that doesn't belong.

M toward

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 27. Direct them to the activity instructions and the example answer and check they know what to do. Elicit in L1 why "down" is different (a preposition, not a family noun). Students work in pairs and complete the activity. They can ask their classmates for help. Check with the class.

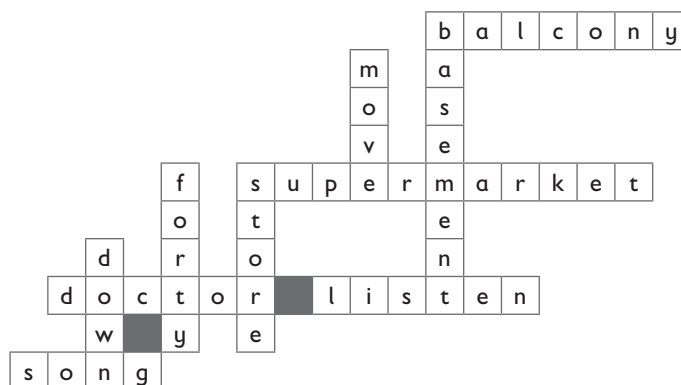

Key: 2 balcony, 3 doctor, 4 basement, 5 forty, 6 song, 7 move, 8 supermarket, 9 store, 10 listen

WB27. ACTIVITY 4. Now complete the crossword puzzle.

Write the message.

- Focus students on Activity 4 and the first part of the activity instructions. Explain what they have to do (use the words from Activity 3 to complete the crossword puzzle).
- Tell students to look and find where their words can fit. Students work in pairs and complete the crossword puzzle using the word lengths and the letters given to help them. Display the large copy of the completed crossword puzzle so students can check their answers.
- Students write the message, using the shaded letters from the crossword puzzle (Good work!).

Key:

Extra activities: see page T102 (if time)

Optional evaluation

- Quiz 1 from Kid's Box AE Interactive DVD 3 (Sally's room section). This quiz can be done as a whole-class activity or as a team competition. See pages 36 and 37 of the Teacher's Booklet for the Interactive DVD.

Ending the lesson

- Students work in groups of four. They need one Do you remember? between three. Two students (A) use a book (or paper) to cover the words from Unit 1. The other two students (B) take turns saying what each picture is and to spell the word. The As look and check. They reverse roles for Unit 2.
- Talk about the Can do statements from Units 1 and 2 with students and elicit examples from volunteer students for each one.
- Ask students which lessons, topics, and/or activities were their favorites.
