

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have reviewed language from Units 3 and 4 and played a game.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Key language: vocabulary and language from Units 3 and 4

Review: procedural language, language for games, instructions, go to ...

● MATERIALS REQUIRED

City flashcards (53–62)

A die and four different colored game pieces for each group of four students

Warmer

- Review places in a city using the flashcards. Show the flashcards. Elicit the words chorally. Place the flashcards on the board. Choose volunteers to say them in order. Turn the cards over. See if students can remember the order. Turn them back to check.
- Give definitions for each place, e.g., I can go here on Saturdays. I must be quiet here. I can read here. (library). Say several sentences for each place, starting with more general clues to encourage students to think before they guess.

SB44. ACTIVITY 1. Play the game.

- Students open their Student's Book to page 44. Elicit what they can see (a game). Say Can you remember some of the language we use in games? Elicit/prompt, e.g., It's my turn, Pass the die, I'm red, I've won, That's cheating. Remind students to use English. Say You speak (their mother tongue), you miss a turn! Check understanding of miss a turn. Check students know how to play and demonstrate the game. They roll the die and go around the board. When they come to a "go to ..." square, they move to that place and say the name aloud. They start their next turn there.
- Students make groups of four. They clear their desks and place one book in the center. Hand out a die and four different colored game pieces to each group. They roll the die to see who starts. Play moves from Start to Finish. The first student in each group to reach the Finish line is the winner.

WB44. ACTIVITY 1. Read and order the words. Make sentences.

- Tell students to open their Workbook to page 44. Direct students to the activity instructions. Check understanding by writing the first scrambled sentence (play tennis / on / I sometimes / Wednesdays.) on the board and showing students how it becomes the example. Students work in pairs. They unscramble each sentence and write it on a line in pencil. Pairs check with pairs. Check with the class.
- Discuss with students what the different parts of the sentences are and how they know what the order is.

Key: 2 Tom never wakes up before 7 o'clock. 3 Mary never rides her bike on the weekend. 4 We always wash our hands before dinner. 5 Jim and Peter never do their homework in the evening. 6 They always read on Sunday mornings.

WB44. ACTIVITY 2. Find the words.

- Focus students on Activity 2 and on the activity instructions. Point out the example answer. Elicit the next word. Make sure students know that the first letters of the words overlap (the last letter of one word is used as the first letter of the next word). Students work individually. They find the words and circle them in pencil. They check in pairs.

Key: always, swim, market, town, never, read, daughter, robot, tell, library, yes, station, need, dinner

WB44. Now answer the questions.

- Students answer the two questions in their pairs. Check with the class.

Key: There are five town words. They are: movie theater, market, town, library, station.

Extra activity: see page T104 (if time)
